

Met Police Pensions – Nomination or revocation of lump sum death grant

Important - Please read these notes before completing this form

- This form allows you to nominate a person to receive a lump sum death grant if you die in service. The amount of the grant is three times your final pay at the time of death (or immediately before any period of absence without pay).
- This form applies to members of the Police Pension Scheme 2015 (2015 Scheme).
- You may nominate anyone you like, including an organisation. You may also nominate as many people or organisations as you like. If you nominate more than one person or organisation, you will need to indicate what proportion of the grant (either a percentage or a fraction) you would like each to receive. If you do not give a proportion, we will divide the grant equally between the people or organisations you have named.
- The form asks you to state any nominated person's relationship to you. You do not have to give this if you do not wish to, but it will help us deal sensitively with matters if you die.
- A nomination will not be effective if at the time of your death you leave a surviving spouse, civil partner or unmarried partner who is entitled to benefits under the 2015 Scheme. In these circumstances, the grant will be paid to that person (refer to the 2015 Scheme Member's Guide for more information about the lump sum death grant and about survivor benefits in general).
- You may wish to consider changing your nomination if your personal circumstances change. It is your responsibility to keep it up to date, including the address of anyone you have nominated.
- Your pensions administrator will acknowledge the nomination by returning a copy for you to keep. If you wish to revoke your nomination you must do so in writing. The forms are available on the website www.mymetpension@equiniti.com.
- Your nomination is not binding on the police authority. If for any reason we do not pay the grant to the person you have named, we will pay it to your personal representative.
